TODAY'S PROGRAM

Fellow Kiwanian Ron Law told us about Theatre Charlotte, of which he is Executive Director.

Theatre Charlotte in 1927 as League. From Little Theater of now, its current heavily on volunteer workers them!), only about revenue comes had its beginning Charlotte Dance that evolved the Charlotte, and, moniker. Relying contributions and (about 500 of HALF of total from ticket sales.

Beginning a new tradition of producing contemporary classics by writers such as Beckett, Ionesco, Pinter, etc., there will be five productions for the 2006/2007 season, beginning September 14, 2006 and ending May 20, 2007. Ticket prices begin at $20 for single performances. Season tickets and group rates are available.

You'd have to look long and far to find such high quality entertainment at prices anywhere near these!

Thanks, Ron, for a fine and interesting insight into one of Charlotte's finest cultural attractions.

(See: goes to prove that right in our midst we have interesting programs available. Let's call on our own members more often to tell us about their activities: work or hobbies.)

THE "Y" READING PROGRAM

On Tuesday, April 25 several of our members acted as "Celebrity Readers" in this annual program. Thanks, Gerald, Mike, Chet, and others. You were, indeed, "Serving the Children of the World."

OOPS!

Please correct a typo error in printed directory copies: Work Telephone for Brad Cameron should be 704 643-9999.
