TODAY'S PROGRAM

Pat McDowell

Thanks to John Downey for bringing Pat McDowell, VP for Development, Queens University, to talk about the sesquicentennial of Queens University. That's right: 150 years. Anybody remember the day it was born????

Donna Canzano

Sam McMahon doesn't remember that, but he does remember about and have the distinction of being one of the very first male graduates of Queens College. After Sam I guess they decided enough of men; so they went back to being a girls only school. But finally, just a few years ago Queens went co-ed again - this time it looks like for keeps.

Catie Fey

Actually we had five Queens guests. In addition to those pictured were Jennifer Luther and Craig Murden.

Welcome to all of you. Come back again. John, how about getting some or all of them to join the Club?

Board of Directors

With the resignation of Mike Harris from the Club, our 2006/2007 Board of Directors was left short one member. And with Mark Mogul vacating the office of President-Elect he would be off the Board. We fixed that whole dilemma by the simple expedient of electing Dr. Mark to a 2-year term on the Board, October 1, 2006 - September 30, 2008. THANKS , Mark, for your willingness to continue on our Board. Your presence will be most valuable.

NEXT MEETING

Monday, October 2.

Speaker: Rick Thurmond, Charlotte Magazine.

Board meeting 11:30 AM. President Gerald says let's keep doing what's working. 2006/2007 Board members are expected. All other Club members are welcome to spectate. Don't forget: attending a regularly scheduled Board meeting qualifies for a make-up attendance.

DIDJAKNOW?

Individual Kiwanians are NOT members of Kiwanis International. They are members of their respective Kiwanis Clubs, which, in turn, are members of Kiwanis International. This sounds nit-picky; but it was a very important point in the court battles some 10 years ago over the question on women members in Kiwanis.

The Carolinas District is organized into 28 Divisions, each of which is headed by a Lieutenant Governor. The Lieutenant Governors are elected by members of their respective Divisions at their Division Meetings in the fall or early spring, usually in conjunction with the Governor's visits to the Divisions. The District Governor and the Governor-Elect are elected by the delegate body at the annual District Convention.

EVIL

Listening recently to a preacher expounding on this subject, it occurred to me that if you turn EVIL around you get LIVE. Likewise turn DEVIL around and you have LIVED.

There oughta be a sermon in there somewhere, huh???

Meets 12:00 Noon, 1st & 3rd Mondays: Best Western Charlotte Uptown - 201 S. McDowell St.
