TODAY'S PROGRAM

Moira Quinn, COO of Charlotte Center City Partners.

Moira brought us a wealth of information about what is going on in an around "downtown" Charlotte. It boggles the mind to realize all of the construction in progress and planned.

As construction reaches out farther and farther, the "Center City" will expand and likely will include the site for the Kiwanis Women and Children's Center at Presbyterian Hospital.

ON THE HORIZON:

The annual Literary Project in April. We'll be partnering again with Bethlehem Center and the YWCA.

Wanted: "Celebrity" Readers. (All Kiwanians are "Celebrities!")

MECKLENBURG KIWANIS CHARITIES

is richer by $10,800.00, resulting from the proceeds from twelve (12) Carl B. Hyatt, Jr. Fellowships being sold for the benefit of our hospital project. That's a good start! Keep 'em coming

MEMBER RECOGNITIONS

For longevity of membership in Mecklenburg Kiwanis:

Past Presidents: Dean Hamrick - 50 years
Gaston Gage - 40 years.

Congratulations for such community and THANKS dedicated service.

I'd call that a pretty good mix of young and old, "old-timers" and "New-Comers." And that bodes well for our future.

CAROLINAS DISTRICT MID-YEAR CONFERENCE

LAST CALL::

February 2-3, Winston-Salem, NC.

This is both an educational meeting AND a fun meeting. There are no "delegates" as it is NOT a business meeting. Everyone is welcome.

You can download a registration form by going to our District web site:

<http://www.carolinakiwanis.org>

On the opening screen you will see a picture of the conference hotel. Clicking anywhere on the picture will bring up all the info you need to register.

Remember, Sam McMahon has offered complimentary rooms in his Winston-Salem Days Inn to all Mecklenburg Club members who would like to stay there. Call Sam or his "Girl Friday" to make reservations.

Meets 12:00 Noon, 1st & 3rd Mondays: Charlotte Uptown Hotel - 201 S. McDowell St.
